SPRING/SUMMER ISSUE APRIL 29, 2015

2015 REUNION - JULY 17-19, 2015 AT CAMP LONE STAR IN LA GRANGE, TEXAS

Greetings Family! The 74th annual reunion of the von Rosenberg Family of Texas will again be happening this coming Summer on July 17th through July 19th. As was agreed to by the family at last year's reunion, we will again be meeting at Camp Lone Star just outside La Grange, Texas. A registration form and schedule for those of you who wish to attend can be found at the back of this newsletter. Please plan on attending, as we want and encourage as many of our fellow von Rosenberg relations to come and enjoy the festivities.

REUNION DETAILS

Highlights of the 2015 Reunion will be:

- Golf Tournament @ either the Lost Pines or Colovista resorts in Bastrop on Friday, July 17th. Tee-time is tentatively set for 12:00noon, however this is subject to change. Contact Drew Cartwright or Bill von Rosenberg for details. Bill will be sending out a detailed information broadcast once details are finalized to all past participants. If you wish to get those details please contact Bill. Bill's email is billvr1229@sbcglobal.net
- A von Rosenberg history field trip will be the main event on Saturday with the family driving to Round Top and meeting at the Round Top Area Historical Association's Jaehne Pavilion on its Round Top campus (behind the Post Office). Information can be found at www.roundtopareahistoricalsociety.weebly.com. From there we will be handling all day visitor registration. We will then drive to the former Nassau Plantation site near Wine-dale, the Weyand Cemetery located adjacent to the former home site, the Richter Cemetery (where Amanda Fallier von Rosenberg among other is buried) and then returning to Round Top, where we will take a walking tour of the Round Top square and vicinity, viewing former family homes and businesses. Afterwards, we will have a sack lunch at the Jaehne Pavilion.
- During lunch, a brief presentation will be given by JT Koenig on his branch of the family; Branch IV. The focus will be on Carl Eugen von Rosenberg and his wife, Dorchen Sack von Roeder von Rosenberg, and their children and grandchildren.
- After lunch, a brief business meeting will be held wherein old business and new business will be discussed, and new officers will be elected for the 2016-2017 term. This next term will be an important one as the reunion will celebrate its 75th year in 2016. Thus far, the slate of candidates includes JT Koenig as President, Gloria Miele as Vice President, Carol Campbell as Secretary and Jason von Rosenberg as Treasurer. That said, anyone who wishes to stand for election may do so, and in fact we encourage additional candidates to ensure all family members

- Prizes will be awarded during the business meeting for the family member who traveled the farthest, for the youngest family member in attendance, for the oldest family member in attendance, the couple married the longest, and for the oldest member of the branch best represented.
- Saturday night will again feature an outdoor Bar-B-Q and brew fest put on by von Rosenberg family members. Camp Lone Star will provide sides only. Cooper Bechtol will again play DJ for anyone who wishes to kick up their heels.
- Sunday, following the devotional service the Fayette Heritage Museum & Archives will have the entire von Rosenberg Family collection on display in their research room upstairs for viewing as family members leave for home. The FHMA is open on Sundays from 1:00pm until 5:00pm and further information can be found at www.fayettecountyhistory.org/fhm_archives.htm.

FAMILY WEBSITE DEMONSTRATION

As you know from past newsletters, the family now maintains a von Rosenberg Family of Texas website (www.vonrosenberg-family.org). This website includes all known past newsletters as well as a new online interactive family tree. This website is designed to serve as our repository for family data such as births, deaths, marriages, and the like.

However, some of you have found the website difficult to navigate and have been unable to update your particular lines with new information. Therefore, on Saturday afternoon, JT Koenig and Gloria Miele will provide a demonstration of how the website, and especially how the online family tree works.

So, if you have updates you want to be included in the online tree, please make sure to bring all the necessary data with you to the reunion so that we can make the most of the opportunity.

NEW BRANCH I ARTIFACT DISCOVERY

Recently, president JT Koenig, was contacted by a non-family member over the internet, and he was informed by tis person that in the course of perusing an estate sale some years ago, that they had purchased two ledgers from a member of the von Rosenberg family in Austin, and this person inquired if it was something that the family would be interested in. JT stated that he would of course be interested in seeing the ledgers and made an appointment to meet this person the following week. Upon meeting , the stranger handed over the ledgers to JT, told him they were happy to have them back “in the family” and made their exit. JT inquired into the details of how the ledgers came into this person’s possession, however they declined to say anything apart from the fact that they were purchased in an estate sale some years ago.

Upon reviewing the ledgers, it became apparent that they were the legal practice ledgers for the youngest son of Carl Wilhelm and Auguste Anders von Rosenberg (Branch I); Frederick Charles von Rosenberg (1866-1931).

In digging into the details of Frederick’s practice, which are detailed in the ledgers from about 1904-1916, it was notable how many family members he served as attorney for, including almost all his siblings and in-laws. Frederick was what one called a general transactional attorney, handling mostly deeds, leases, debt collections and probate matters. He evidently handled the probates of his brother Ernst as well as that of his brother-in-law, August Giesen.

The ledgers will be added to the von Rosenberg collection as soon as can be practicably accomplished.

LONG LOST COUSINS FOUND!

Over the past two years, a great many of you have logged into our Facebook page, which can be found at the following link: <https://www.facebook.com/vonrosenbergfamilyoftexas>

In addition to already known family members, one of the benefits of our Facebook page is the ability to connect with family members who we did not even know existed. This truth became evident when we were recently contacted by a cousin who reached out to us via Facebook informing us that she was a von Rosenberg descendant. Upon receiving the message, we looked up the visitor's name in the Beige Book, the most recent family genealogy book published by the family in 2001, and also known as Book Three, and found no record of her.

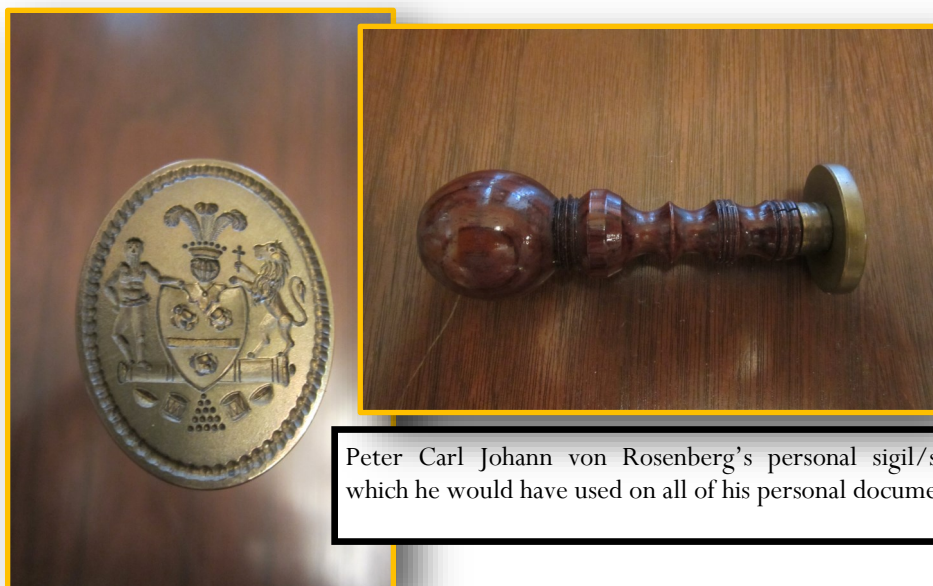

The webmaster asked her how she thought she was a descendant and she replied by informing him that she was a von Carlowitz. However, he still could not find her. He asked her who her father was, and that was when it was discovered that she was indeed a von Rosenberg descendant; one whom we did not even know existed. Thus, via this newsletter we welcome Laura von Carlowitz Jelinsky, her sister Lisa von Carlowitz Knust and their entire extended families to the von Rosenberg Family of Texas! Laura and Lisa are the daughters of Joseph Anton von Carlowitz (1927-2004) and his wife, Sally Lee Johnston (1929-2010). As such, they are descendants of Carl Wilhelm and Auguste Anders von Rosenberg. Laura lives with her husband and three children in Dubuque, Iowa, and Lisa lives with her husband in Montecito, California.

In addition to our new Branch I cousins, we also now have made contact with another cousin via Facebook, this time with a much more distant but no less welcome addition; Marina Diakonova Kashirskaya, originally from Russia, but now residing with her husband Sergey Kashirsky in suburban Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Marina is a direct descendant of Peter Carl Johann von Rosenberg's half-sister, Friedericke Theodore Antoinette von Rosenberg (approx. 1808-1870), whose parents were Otto Bohlschwing von Rosenberg (Peter Carl's father who lived from 1766-1817) and Catharina Borkenhagen (approx. 1785-1819).

Marina and Sergey's two sons also reside here in the United States; Yegor is a Financial Advisor who resides in suburban Philadelphia with his wife and two young children, and Nikita, a professional hockey player and coach with the Wichita Thunder, who resides with his wife in Wichita, Kansas.

When sharing some pictures of the Texas von Rosenbergs with Marina, one picture really stood out to her; one of Peter Carl's personal stamp with the von Rosenberg coat of arms, at which Marina exclaimed "There was one of these as well in our family home in Pskov" in far western Russia, near the Latvian and Estonian border.

Peter Carl Johann von Rosenberg's personal sigil/stamp which he would have used on all of his personal documents.
